

AUSTRALIAN LIFESAVING
ACADEMY
Queensland

Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club Inc.
Licensed Provider
Learning the Art of Saving Lives
“Skills for Life”

Community and school based programs offering courses from 7 years of age to 100 years of age.

Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club, under the banner of Surf Life Saving Academy of Queensland offer nationally recognised training programs to include school and community lectures, beach and water activities, resuscitation training and certification, first aid training, surf survival programs and surf sport skills development.

Our programs can range from activities in the class room to activities in both pool and surf.
All programs can be modified to suit the client and individuals.

The Advantages

- Most courses have a qualification outcome
- Courses are conducted year round
- Mooloolaba Surf Life Saving Club has training rooms fully equipped
- Courses may be conducted at your venue
- Courses may be conducted in conjunction with current or proposed programs
- Annual updates for qualifications
- Some courses may be banked for students Queensland Certificate of Education

Staff

All Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club staff have comprehensive knowledge and experience of the programs being delivered with National Surf Life Saving qualifications. In addition to meeting industry standards. Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club is a recognised training organization.

Cost

Please contact Michael Sharry at Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club for costs associated with your organizations requirements. Prices will vary depending on travel, numbers and individual outcome requirements.

Contact

Michael Sharry
Program Coordinator
Mooloolaba Surf Lifesaving Club Licensed Provider
Australian Life Saving Academy Queensland
(07) 5493 2707 or 0418 660 096
captain@thesurfclub.com.au